FEDERATION OF INTERNATIONAL HEMP ORGANIZATIONS (FIHO)

FIHO GOALS

The key functions of FIHO are to bring industry leaders, market experts, and diverse resources together to speak with one voice on hemp issues at the global level and to identify and create opportunities to scale sustainable hemp production, marketing, and trade to benefit the global hemp industry, consumers, and the environment.

HOW FIHO WILL ACHIEVE ITS GOALS

Until its inaugural AGM on November 18, 2022, the FIHO Board of Directors and its Standing and Ad-Hoc Committees are in their Interim Stages.

Interim Standing Committees

Executive Committee

Assist the Board in implementing the FIHO mission, identify risks, provide governance and leadership, and respond to significant issues between Board meetings.

Finance & Audit Committee

Oversee financial reporting and audit process, identify financial risks, identify the need for new financial policies, and ensure compliance with federal regulations.

Governance Committee

Ensure that the Board fulfills its legal, ethical and functional responsibilities by developing by-laws and governance manuals. Oversee new director orientation.

Interim Ad-Hoc Committees

Communications and Engagement Committee

Foster and facilitate communication between FIHO and its members, industry stakeholders, and the general public.

Policy & Regulations Committee

Develop and share policy and regulatory information between FIHO and its members, industry stakeholders, and the general public. Develop a credible voice for the global hemp industry with inter-governmental agencies to positively impact their future hemp policy and regulatory positions.

Research, Standards, and Sustainability Committee

Support global co-operation and joint initiatives to advance hemp research, adopt hemp standards and elevate/share hemp's contribution to global sustainability.
